CASE DESIGNATED FOR PARTICIPATION IN THE COURT'S E-FILING PILOT

Pursuant to order of the court issued on October 9, 2006, this case has been designated as complex. Also, pursuant to Administrative Order 2002-127, this case is now subject to mandatory e-filing.

The e-File Case Manager has fully reviewed the case history as reflected in both the case file and the iCIS case management system, and designates this case for participation in the Complex Civil Litigation e-Filing Pilot as established by Administrative Order 2003-115. Mandatory e-filing and electronic service will commence as of October 24, 2006. Filing by conventional means will continue until this date.

All attorneys of record in this case should contact the Court's e-Filing vendor, LexisNexis File & Serve, if they need to register and get trained on the vendor's e-Filing system prior to the go-live date of October 24, 2006. LexisNexis File & Serve can be contacted at (888) 529-7587 or www.lexisnexis.com/fileandserve. Please make sure that your appearance fee has been paid, as this will expedite the transfer of accurate case related information to LexisNexis File & Serve and ensure a smooth transition to e-filing.

The Complex Litigation Fee will be billed and collected by the Billing Unit of the Clerk of Superior Court.

All parties participating in this e-Filing pilot are also advised of the following requirements:

1. Each response and reply must be electronically linked to the motion to which it applies.
2. Except for a cross motion on the same issues no response shall contain a separate motion.
3. Any motion not contained in the caption of the pleading will not be considered by the court as a motion.
4. The movant determines the title of the pleading and all responsive pleadings will bear the same title. (i.e. Defendant's Motion for summary judgment on negligence, the response will NOT be captioned Plaintiff's response to defendant's motion of summary judgment on count III).

For questions regarding commencement of the e-filing process, please contact the E-file Case Manager at (602) 372-1086.

Matter concludes.
